

In response to the latest guidelines and information from local and state public health authorities, MusicalMe, Inc. classrooms will be closed, effective March 14th at 8am.

As a trusted community space, we remain committed to following the recommendations of public health authorities and will continue to act in an abundance of caution with the health and safety of our community, teachers, students, staff, and families as our top priority and responsibility.

We encourage everyone to stay healthy, informed, and updated with these resources:
